§ 11

First part Text as a whole without the words: 'to diversify and implement legal pathways'
Second part those words

First part 'Emphasises the need to combat human smuggling and trafficking through strengthened international and multilateral cooperation with partner countries, including, where appropriate, with local authorities, security forces and civil society organisations, on crime prevention, victim protection, enhanced law enforcement, public awareness campaigns to counteract disinformation, the prosecution of perpetrators and the prevention of the exploitation of migrants by criminal networks and migrant smugglers,'
Second part 'as well as by providing safer alternatives through the creation of legal channels for safe and regular migration and labour mobility; underlines that strict border control without alternative legal pathways for migration shifts migration routes, introducing different steps into the journey and new transit countries, thus increasing the precariousness of the journey and the exposure of migrants to smuggling networks, extortion and violence'

Recital G

First part 'whereas since 2015, the EU has been facing unprecedented migration flows, the management of which has required sustained effort from Member States, and whereas it is therefore necessary to strengthen European development policies to address the root causes of irregular migration and forced displacement, given that over 8.5 million requests for asylum were submitted in EU Member States between 2015 and 2024; whereas the irregular border crossings at the EU's external borders fell by over one quarter (26 %) in 2025 to almost 178 000'
Second part 'whereas a majority of migrants coming to Europe arrive through legal channels; whereas SDG 10 target 7 calls for countries to facilitate the orderly, safe, regular and responsible migration and mobility of people through planned and well-managed migration policies'

Recital AC

First part 'whereas development cooperation plays an essential role in contributing to addressing the root causes of irregular migration and forced displacement, as well as combating the smuggling of human beings, protecting refugees and people in need of international protection, supporting refugee-hosting countries'
Second part 'and developing legal migration pathways;'
